

As an Indiana resident, I urge you not to implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections. I view the Telephone Privacy Law as the best piece of legislation from any level of government in my lifetime. My solicitation calls have been reduced from 3 to 5 per day to 1 or 2 per week. My phone is once again a useful tool for communication, and no longer a source of constant annoyance.

Sincerely,
Ross Sneary